Seduced Like Magic

Visions of Atlantis

Seduced Like Magic She took away reality and brought me to this place to see I never thought that this could be for real While often life is cold and I'm sometimes feeling sold There seems to be another realm where I can feel a higher sense The way she brought me there was somehow wicked and obscure But like a child I lost the doubt when I saw light I could not understand how I did breathe and opened eyes beneat h the sea But my heart followed her call that took me away Easily she got me done, this night I never saw something like this before... To prey I'm fallen, to seductive art (Of) a mistress of the warm sea at night A witch of the waves Storms can't kill the faith in rainbows But when the dawn does come you should Wrap your arms around the right one No need for nothing else I felt and so I could let the ice melt Between us and I took her really near For a single moment that did take away my sense for what is rea 1 And what was just a great illusion of a dream Addicted to her fingertips I reached out for her hand, her lips And finally her cloak did disappear But when I took her in my arms, and held her close, I felt no h eart And found that she was nothing more than faking me to death Reason's light had got me back, again So hard to wake, when all you "loved", is gone To prey I'm fallen, to seductive art (Of) a mistress of the warm sea at night A witch of the weaves Storms can't kill the faith in rainbows But when the dawn does come you should Wrap your arms around the right one
