Vivid

So loud yet I hear nothing
I dreamed of a world that glitters
All the time, all the time
Let all disappear so I can be the one true God
Nothing changes at all, and this forever

Just tightly close my eyes quietly
And I pray to God

In the underground, I will continue waiting here
I don't need anything else anymore
Now, even when I cry
What won't you hear my heart cry ?
You left me, I'm alone
This darkness swallows me alive

The silence is too loud
Even if I disappear the world
Won't care, won't care
Let disappear in a white out of eternal abyss
Nothing changes at all

Just tightly close my eyes quietly
And I pray to God

In the underground, I will continue waiting here
I don't need anything else anymore
Now, even when I cry
Why won't you hear my screaming heart ?
You left me, I'm alone
Save me from the deep darkness

Just tightly close my eyes quietly
And I pray to God

In the underground, I will continue waiting here
I don't need anything else anymore
Now, even when I cry
Why don't you hear my heart cry ?
You left me, I'm alone
This darkness swallows me alive

In the underground, I will continue waiting here
I don't need anything else anymore
Now, even when I cry
Why won't you hear my screaming heart ?
You left me, I'm alone
Save me from the deep darkness
