

Waiting

Vixen

You caught my eye
And now I'll never be the same
I'm ready, I'm willing
I'm anxious to know your name
Could you be tempted to give me a chance
But there's just one thing I need to know:
Do you love'em and leave'em?
When you got them believin'
that you'll never go

You, you keep me waiting
Waiting for you
Anticipating , what can I do?
You keep me waiting
I never knew
that I'd still be waiting

I wish you'd realize in me you can confide
Ah, tell me, please tell me
You wanna know what's really here inside
Is it love there in your eyes, or it's just a lie?

You, you keep me waiting
Waiting for you
Anticipating , what can I do?
You keep me waiting
I never knew
that I'd still be waiting

I see lyin' in your eyes
And now I realize that you
You keep me waiting
Waiting for you
Anticipating, think that I'm through
You kept me waiting
I never knew
that I'd still be waiting....
