

Alley In Tijuana

Viza

So you wana see the world make your life better, now do the damn thing now baby cause you're a real go getter.

Its not that I think your not willing, cant do it or just dont wanna, but the way I see it lookin for you baby, you'll end up in an alley in Tijuana.

God forbid you do,

I gotta come find you.

Clean you up and take you home.

Get you a new pair of shoes.

Why you spendin my money?

You got yourself a new caddy?

Cuz the way you actin baby you don't need a man you need a daddy.

You'll end up in an alley in Tijuana.

Sneaking all round town with the wicked witch, keeping me up all night. Self destructive evil ways and I don't wanna put up a fight.

Why you taking all them Ménage à trois don't you know them diseases are scary. 130 miles an hour on the freeway girl, living in a whole in the cemetery.

You'll end up in an alley in Tijuana.
