

Cold

Vök

'Cause I
I'm weak
I'm low
Should disappear

The thoughts I have
Beyond repair

And you
Left me burning
A heart on fire
Without desire

But nobody
Compares to you
How could you leave this all behind you?

We could have stayed together
Fought the stormy weather
But now we drift apart

We would've failed forever
There's no way we could ever
Go back to the start

When it's cold outside
When it's dark at night
I'm torn

Love has burned and died
Left behind a hint of light
I'm warm
I'm warm

'Cause we
Waste it all
Too comfortable
I know it was

A blurry mess
No passion, no depth
Could we go back to the start?

We could have stayed together
Fought the stormy weather
But now we drift apart

When it's cold outside
When it's dark at night
I'm torn

Love has burned and died
Left behind a hint of light
I'm warm

Maybe in a different time
Maybe in a different life

Maybe in a different time
Maybe in a different life
