

Hiding

Vök

It's so easy no to try it all
But I won't stand here still no more
Don't try holding me back
There's no way you will take this from me
There's no way you will take this from me

And I will try to make it real
I will follow my own appeal
Cause we can do what no one can
We realize that it's all down to us
And always living like we should have done
The only lie we really want
Cause I am just chasing after dreams
Chasing after dreams
Chasing after dreams

Why you holding?
Why you hiding?
Let's get started on our way
Why you holding?
We keep hiding
Let's get started to carry on our way
