

Round Two

Vök

Would you step away with me
And give me everything I wanted?
Would you be an animal?
Give me everything if I need it
I gave you everything that you needed

How could I hold
Onto something that is so cold?
I hope you learn to forgive me
Please learn to forgive me

I let you win but you wanna take away my pride
I walk through every day feeling so afraid
I'm just gonna show my true face
'Cause I'm making your mistakes
This even is no game, I'm not to be blamed
I let you win but you wanna take away my pride
I walk through every day feeling so afraid
I'm just gonna show my true face
'Cause I'm making your mistakes
This even is no game, I'm not to be blamed
I'm not to be blamed, I'm not to be blamed
It's round two
