

Angel of Darkness

Void Of Vision

Watch me walk away
I'm taking everything you want
You wanted me to stay?
I wanted you to let me know
Angel of darkness

I wrote a song to remind you I've been left behind
Still chasing violent delights
All the ones that get me high
'Cause I'm hanging by a moment
And you know it, yeah you know it
You found me, at my lowest
My angel of darkness

Oh won't you
Watch me walk away?
I'm taking everything you want
(Watch me walk away)
(I'm taking everything you want)
You wanted me to stay?
I wanted you to let me know
(You wanted me to stay?)
(I wanted you to let me know)
I know I shouldn't say
It's killing me to let you go
(I know I shouldn't say)
(It's killing me to let you go)
Oh won't you watch me walk away?
I'm taking everything you want
(Watch me walk away)
(I'm taking everything you want)
Taking everything you want

Watch me walk away
Watch me walk away

(Come on)
(Come on)
(Come on)
(Come on)

A deadly kind of divine
You know it's hard when I'm so fucking sick of desire
'Cause that means that you're not mine
Still hanging by a moment
And you know it, yeah you know it
Come and find me at my lowest
My angel of darkness

Watch me walk away
I'm taking everything you want
(Watch me walk away)
(I'm taking everything you want)
You wanted me to stay?
I wanted you to let me know
(You wanted me to stay?)
(I wanted you to let me know)

I know I shouldn't say
It's killing me to let you go
(I know I shouldn't say)
(It's killing me to let you go)
Oh won't you watch me walk away?
I'm taking everything you want
(Watch me walk away)
(I'm taking everything you want)
Taking everything you want

My angel of darkness
My angel of darkness
(Still hanging by a moment)
(And you know it, yeah you know it) (My angel of darkness)
(Come and find me at my lowest)
My angel of darkness
