

Blood for Blood

Void Of Vision

I wear this black lipstick when I seal it with a kiss
So the whole world knows there are...
Fuck it

I wear this black lipstick when I seal it with a kiss
So the whole world knows this is my death wish
I'll take the blood, the sweat, the tears on my face
Sell it for a buck 'cause you love the way it tastes

You better place your fucking bets
You know me better than I ever did

Wake the fuck up
When is enough really considered enough?
Is it the day that all my friends are dead? (Go ahead)
You can all make a martyr of me yet

I can't hear you
Dead with my heroes
(I said)
I can't hear you
Dead with my heroes

I wear this black lipstick when I seal it with a- black, black, black lipstick with a kiss, kiss, kiss

I wear this black lipstick when I seal it with a kiss
So the whole world knows this is my death wish
I'll take the blood, the sweat, the tears on my face
Sell it for a buck 'cause you love the way-
I wear this black lipstick when I seal it with a kiss
So the whole world knows this is my death wish
I'll take the blood, the sweat, the tears on my face
Sell it for a buck 'cause you love the way it tastes

This is
This is
This is my death wish

It's blood for blood
But you never want to give it up
It's blood for blood
So give it up
