

Kerosene Dream

Void Of Vision

Burn you into me
No restrain in reverie, I let the fire catch me
Burn you into me
Flames lick so desperately, through my debris

Ashes to ashes, dust to dust
You killed the best in me, the worst is yet to come

No sorrow, no grief
No shade of melancholy
I got what I wanted and want what I'll forget

Burn you into me
No restrain in reverie, I let the fire catch me
Burn you into me
Flames lick so desperately, through my debris

You're shackled to my mind, my temple of lies
No heaven in your presence
Hellbound, you breed obsession

Burn

Burn you into me
No restrain in reverie, I let the fire catch me
Burn you into me
Flames lick so desperately, through my debris

I'll burn you into me

Burn
