

Red Handed

Void Of Vision

So take it from me, this ain't how life's supposed to be

Set to drain like a fucking vampire
And the bloodshed's climbing higher
Every hint of life we treasure, taken under
We saw sacrifice take the high ground
Led like sheep to the slaughter
Your true colours shown by the blood in the water

Don't get it twisted we're all one in the same
But when you're behind closed doors
It's so much easier to say that you're not fake
You'll find that the truth's not in traditions kept
It's in the flesh

You've delved far too deep into the great unknown
Where we're wondering where you'll come to know
You reap what you sow
Get it through your head
This is no way to live

Don't get it twisted we're all one in the same
But when you're behind closed doors
It's so much easier to say that you're not fake
You'll find that the truth's not in traditions kept
It's in the flesh

So tell me how's this a fucking compromise?
