

Revolt

Void Of Vision

We are the forsaken
We are the ones who you cast aside
This is the truth hidden directly, in front of our eyes
This is the end of segregation

It's time to break the laws laid down by the almighty leaders
The failed kings of corruption

This is an uprising
We will stand above the rest
Dark horses, will stand proud
Dark horses will stand now

Keep those at home in your heart
And those in your heart at home

Now let me set for you this record straight
We were all born to be free and we will die for life's sake
For its the only thing keeping me alive
I'll keep holding onto my hope until the day that I die

I chose to venture to this land
Wishing that one day I could finally seek and understand what i t truly means to fulfil your dreams
Don't let them fade away, we can achieve

Euphoria is received, as priority prevails
