

SAINT MISERABLE

Void Of Vision

Say my name in vain
I'll never waste the pain
Say my name in vain

Asphyxiate
When you take hold of me
Heavy dissociate
As the blood drips off the blade

So don't you dare speak my fucking name
The words from your mouth
They don't hold no weight they just

Tell me that the truth hurts
The truth is, the truth hurts
Tell me that the truth hurts
The truth is, the truth hurts

Tear it apart in your head
If I embrace the fall
Is it unnatural?
Just to take off the edge
Toxic, so typical
Saint miserable

It's getting hard to pull her strings
When you're on the edge with broken wings

Blessed be, you mean nothing to me

Well, you asked so just fucking tell me

Tell me that the truth hurts
The truth is, the truth hurts
Tell me that the truth hurts
The truth is, the truth hurts

Tear it apart in your head
If I embrace the fall
Is it unnatural?
Just to take off the edge
Toxic, so typical
Saint miserable

Oh, so cynical
Saint miserable

Say my name in vain
I'll never waste the pain
