

Colourblind

VOILÀ

When I'm thinking of her I'm coloured outside the lines
Every shade of blue through my rue right before her eyes
Can't ya see I'm bleeding, ya seeing in black and white
Anybody tell me just why

She's so colourblind, colourblind, colourblind
She's so colourblind, colourblind, colourblind

I hear you whispering about some new guy
And I'm screaming just trying to give you love
Every word is just ripping me open
I could've gave you so much

When I'm thinking of her I'm coloured outside the lines
Every shade of blue through my rue right before her eyes
Can't ya see I'm bleeding, ya seeing in black and white
Anybody tell me just why

She's so colourblind, colourblind
She's so colourblind, colourblind, colourblind
She's so colourblind, colourblind, colourblind
She's so colourblind, colourblind, colourblind

Standing here I'm on fire for you
Standing there you say "does anyone smell smoke?"
Standing there unrequited for you
Dying, losing all hope

When I'm thinking of her I'm coloured outside the lines
Every shade of blue through my rue right before her eyes
Can't ya see I'm bleeding, ya seeing in black and white
Anybody tell me just why

She's so colourblind, colourblind
She's so colourblind, colourblind, colourblind
She's so colourblind, colourblind, colourblind
She's so colourblind, colourblind, colourblind

Standing here I'm on fire for you
Standing there you say "does anyone smell smoke?"
Standing there unrequited for you
Dying, losing all hope
