

Déjà Vu

VOILÀ

I've seen this before
That black dress, that strapless lying on my floor
Mascara and your hair on the clothes that I wore
That we ripped off and we pissed off the neighbors next door

We drink, we're drunk
We fight and then we fuck
I said we drink, we're drunk
We kiss and then break up
I said we drink, we're drunk
Make love and then make up
I said we drink, we're drunk

Tell me, baby, is it déjà vu?
We always drink until I'm seeing two
And what we do ain't really nothing new
Tell me, baby, is it déjà vu?
'Cause every night I'm going home with you, you
We always drink until I'm seeing two, two
What we do ain't really nothing new, new
Tell me, baby, is it déjà vu, vu?

I've seen this before
Your lipstick on the absinthe means that I'm done for
'Cause you hate me then date me every other pour
It's touché when you say, "Pour one more señor"

We drink, we're drunk
We fight and then we fuck
I said we drink, we're drunk
We kiss and then break up
I said we drink, we're drunk
Make love and then make up
I said we drink, we're drunk

Tell me, baby, is it déjà vu?
We always drink until I'm seeing two
And what we do ain't really nothing new
Tell me, baby, is it déjà vu?
'Cause every night I'm going home with you, you
We always drink until I'm seeing two, two
What we do ain't really nothing new, new
Tell me, baby, is it déjà vu, vu?

I've seen this before
Have I seen this before?
I've seen this before
Have I seen this before?

We drink, we're drunk
We fight and then we fuck
I said we drink, we're drunk
We kiss and then break up
I said we drink, we're drunk
Make love and then make up
I said we drink, we're drunk

Tell me, baby, is it déjà vu?
We always drink until I'm seeing two
And what we do ain't really nothing new
Tell me, baby, is it déjà vu?
'Cause every night I'm going home with you, you
We always drink until I'm seeing two, two
What we do ain't really nothing new, new
Tell me, baby, is it déjà vu, vu?
