

We Are Connected

Voivod

Tie together this old waste
Flight cases and rolls of tape
Connecting, returning home
Chewing cups of styrofoam
Template for shocking news
Terminal of awful blues
Moving lips, but there's no sound
Final call, and now you're gone

So far, mind-blowing far
So hard, heart-breaking hard

So hard, forced to understand
Our whole world has reached its end
I'm fastened to reality
A boarding pass for eternity
In the desert lives a burning man
There's a probe about to land
All my thoughts are taking off
Above the clouds where I get lost

So far, mind-blowing far
So hard, heart-breaking hard

Sadness fumes, fuel perfume
Mind excused, soul exhumed
Spiral down, swirl around
Without sound, leave the ground

Fly forever
Reach the never
Life's not over
Be remembered

We just keep on travelin'
Is it worth giving so much in the after?
So much on the future?
We are made for riding
Is it worth saving so much to carry on?
Too much for nevermore
So much to carry on
Too much for nevermore
So much to carry on
Too much for nevermore, nevermore

Nevermore
Is it worth giving?
Is it worth saving?
So much to carry on
Too much for nevermore

There's no real destination
In no time, it's a new horizon
The chemtrails across the sky
Are guiding us all through the night
At the counter of lost and found
Touch the ground, deep and profound

We have a friend, passed away
We'll meet you there, we'll go one day

So far, mind-blowing far

So far, so hard
So far, so hard
