

Your Mind Is A Helpless Dreamer

VOLA

We've been around for so long We've started dreaming of the past We'll find the gleam in our eyes
And close our lids to make it last

Now don't you try to stop me
I'm not content in my role
These walls of dirt are pending Pushing my need of control

These moments are keeping your mind away and keeping injustice
now
These moments are leading your head astray and keeping injustice

We've sung these songs for so long You've seen us scream behind the mold
We've dug the perfect treasures
But never seen the modern gold

These moments are keeping your mind away and keeping injustice
These moments are leading your head astray and keeping injustice

You did your time, don't you know
You don't have to conquer mentality once more
You did your time, you should know Freedom of thought isn't worth fighting for

These moments are keeping your mind away and keeping injustice
These moments are leading your head astray and keeping injustice
