

Maybellene I Hofteholder

Volbeat

Saturday I love you like gold
Not like the Monday, you pass like a ghost
The fire killed you like a motherless child
I saw you last Sunday at Barbara Hotel... oh oh oh oh oh- oh babe I'm so sorry, I've nowhere to...

Could scream like a pig, Could bark like a dog
Just to get attention as I'm chasing you down the hall
oh Maybelenne you've been so lonely
Got a fire burning as I'm smoking you out again...
Still all the leaves will keep on falling until I see you dancing on the table 45 again

(I) see you dancing for the young wolves oh oh oh
Maybellene i Hofteholder
Could you be the only one
Well I beg you to come home
Dance forever my only one

Could scream like a pig, Could bark like a dog
Just to get attention as I'm chasing you down the hall
oh Maybellene you've been so lonely
Got a fire burning as I'm smoking you out again...

(I) see you dancing for the young wolves oh oh oh
Maybellene i Hofteholder
(I) see you dancing for the young wolves oh oh oh
Maybellene i Hofteholder
Could you be the only one
Well I beg you to come home
Dance forever my only one

I flicked the switch at Monday night
Oh Maybellene I'm so sorry that I didn't see it coming.
And now the sky, I filled with prayers.
oh baby I'm sorry I was blind
