

Beg for Death

Vomitary

Straight down the sky ready to die
As the bombs hit the ground with full power
There's no escape, everything burns
The soil erupting in fire
Bullets fly by, eating the flesh
Machine guns grinding through bones
Feel the fear, this is the end
The torture has only begun

Artillery blasting, bodies dismembered
No place to hide to take cover
Abandoned, cut off, there's no escape
Only despair, emptiness and hate
The reek of death, burning cadavers
The survivors hiding inside corpses
Pain, panic, only suffering ahead
As the sound of bombers approaches

As life's flashing by, time to die
You beg for death
You beg for death

The blood-filled soil covered with human bodies
The remains left to decompose forever

As life's flashing by, time to die
You beg for death
You beg for death

Beg for death
Beg for death
Beg for death
Beg for death
Beg for death
Beg for death
