

Devil's Daughter

Voodoo Circle

Ever since I was a drifter
Driving down the road of joy
I was looking for a woman
Just one that I could hold
Ever since I was a Rambler
On this path of retribution
I'd finally found the answer
And I knew I couldn't break from her spell

I was looking for a woman, with the eyes of an angel
So innocent and sweet, but what I got was a lady of deceit

She tried to tear my heart out, she took off her disguise
Tangled in her madness and all here evil lies
Oh, she's the devil's daughter
Took me to slaughter

Didn't see the signs of danger
Made me feel like such a fool
Couldn't know her wicked ways
When she plays her evil game
Breaking all the rules
So I guess I'll keep on moving
And maybe one of these fine days
I'll find me a woman
Who knows how to move in all the right ways

I'm still looking for a woman, with the eyes of an angel
So innocent and sweet but what I got was a lady of deceit

She tried to tear my heart out, she took off her disguise
Tangled in her madness and all here evil lies
I only knew the answer when I looked into her eyes
Oh, she's the devil's daughter
She's the devil's daughter
