I'm in Heaven

Voodoo Circle

I got this feeling and it's getting stronger
I sense it in me day by day
Feel like a prisoner of my own devices
What's hiding inside of me?
A mixed up feeling running through my veins now
Seems my perception has gone astray
All the things that I ever dreamt of
The truth is your inside of me

And every day, I just can't change my mind about you
All the things I've been searching for
Suddenly came so true

I'm in Heaven
Thinking about your love
I'm in Heaven
Dreaming about your love

Seems I've been living for to long in darkness
Like a demon hiding from the sun
I made a promise a would never leave you
Imprisoned and I just can't run
Retribution ain't no friend of mine
I've paid my dues it's all been said and done
Just a culprit of my own misfortune
So I'm guilty and that's my only crime

And every day, I just can't change my mind about you
All the things I've been searching for
Suddenly came so true

I'm in Heaven
Thinking about your love
I'm in Heaven
Dreaming about your love
