

Downtown

Vory

Said she wanna ride downtown
And wanna see the way I put it down
Change hoes like close enough, I'ma be there for ya
Never see me touch road unless I'm coming for ya
You know I'm coming
Don't think that I would lie to you (Yeah, yeah)
But I just want you to know (Oh, no)
I won't change my mind (For you, for you)

I know what you want
Want me to be
All on you the way you want
Yeah, yeah
I show up
And then we
Make love
Just wanna do what's right (For you, for you, ayy)

Phone still on DND, baby
Too much shit disturbing me lately
Mindset on TNT, baby, fall on me (On me)
I've been off the grid for my health
Reaching out to you with your help
I just needed time to myself, guess I wasn't too self aware
I was happy broke and rich sadder
I was spending time, it don't matter
Oh, baby, I called on you, I needed you (Needed you)
Every time I call on you, you're fallin' through for me
You know I love you for that, always
And I'm sure by nowadays he knows what we know, ayy
'Cause he know you're a dog out the leash
You should dog him out and come to me
I know it's not where you wanna be
Laying over him and texting me, my dear
Damn, girl, you a savage for that one, you funny as shit
Ayy, but how can I judge when you learn from the best?
How do you fit all that ass in that dress?
Still got some things that I need to address
But you rather undress for the sake of the stress
Shots got pole, baby, I was on road with a room for the hoes with a shooter
I miss
All in your DM they sending you pics, I know that you pissed
I must admit that them bitches was bold
I'll lie to you like them bitches is old, they here for the bros (Oh, yeah)
You home all alone by using your Rolls, still I get out rolled
Oh, baby, here I come

Said she wanna ride downtown
And wanna see the way I put it down
Change hoes like clothes, you know I'ma be there for ya
Never see me touch road unless I'm coming for ya
You know I'm coming
Don't think that I would lie to you
But I just want you to know (Oh, no)
I won't change my mind (For you, for you)

(I know I'm sorry

I put it down low, so I'ma be there for ya
But unless I'm coming for ya
Waiting to you)
