

Yeah grateful for everything, grateful
Last time we saw each other
Smoking the L last time we saw each other
You still want smoke with me and I'm tied in with your oldest brother

Lucky motherfucker
Lucky motherfucker

If I'm not the one you wanna ride with okay
I'm not the one you wanna vibe with all day
I'm not the one you take home and call bae
I'm not the one you wanna die with okay

Ayy
Baby, I'm just sayin'
Die with, okay
Baby, I'm just sayin'
Not the one that you wanna die with, okay (Baby, I'm just sayin')

I'm just sayin'
Here we go again
Put aside my pride
For your family and your friends
And your friends say I'm no good for you
You should decide for ya
I ain't switching sides for ya baby

I just fucked on ya last week now I'm with your friend
Don't call me again
Music to my ears sounding like melodies again
Melody's a friend

So I drink in the city got me movin slow
Maybach ridin I was cruisin low
I gave you game only for you to know
You should use it more oh baby

All the cash I gave you was for you to blow
Everything that I told you was for you to know
Told you keep it P you took it personal
Still fucking with your ex I should've been the first to know

Baby I'm just sayin'
Don't call me a friend
I'm not your twin
Music to my ears sounding like melodies again
Yeah

Baby I'm just sayin'
Baby I'm just sayin'
Baby I'm
Baby I'm
Baby I'm
Baby I'm just sayin'

Too many drinks I might call up Alicia
Like aw baby I need ya

Pick up baby I need ya

Cute face and petite waist gets me every time
That was sign to tell you dollar signs
Tell me who it's for if it was never mine
Awkward silence I'm like never mind
I should just give it time
