

Lesson Learned

Vory

I think I learned my lesson
Yeah
I think I learned my lesson this time
Ohh I
I think I learned my lesson
Yeah

Trauma got me scared to get attached baby
I fell out of love then fell back baby
You can say whatever facts is facts baby
Only me and God know the rest lately
Too deep in my mind hard to rest lately
If I was you I wouldn't waste your time tryna save me
If I was you I wouldn't waste your time

Girl you got my soul on fire
You would love to hit it up and run inside
You would love to see another grown man cry
But my tears run dry

Yeah

How could you be so ungrateful
Fronting for the gram but your heart is unstable
Let's leave it all on the table
Let's leave it all on the table

You been out the picture but your mind framed huh
Cause I won't fall victim to your mind games huh
You'd rather expose me in broad day huh
You'd rather see me dead than have it my way huh

But I know you very well, it's like Everything that's coming out your mouth is like a line from hell

I know you very well you live in fairytales
You live in fairytales
That's not reality

I learned my lesson this time
I learned my lesson this time
I learned my lesson this
I learned my lesson this time

Baby
Baby

Cause I've been
Yeah
You've been M.I.A. and in my A home
You've been in the mix without the way home
Say you still ain't find a nigga you pray for That's cause you lookin for a nigga you can slave on Truth is out you got nothing left to say huh

Honestly I don't be interested in hearing about like and the games that you' re playing, like I don't

And me and you have been through a lot of shit together so like you know it's just continuously is happening and to me like if the relationship isn't gonna- friendship, relationship, whatever because we don't have a relationship, like, and we don't really have a friendship so my thing is like I love you to death because of our past. I don't really know the present you right now .

I think I learned my lesson this time
