

Lost Souls

Vory

No second chances
Ay no second chances

Blood in my eyes and my gun too
No one on my side who I run to
Lost soul you mean a lot if I want you
Lost soul you mean a lot if I want you

Yeah no second chances
No second chances
No second chances

Yeah
She move to a city where everybody somebody
She's a nobody wanna be a somebody
Act like she a virgin like she don't got no bodies
Cause she don't got nobody fuck

Yeah blood in my eyes
Cause I'm high geeked off these perks and all
My problems way too deep for therapy it's personal
She just wanna put this Molly on her tongue and roll
She just wanna put this perky on her tongue and go
Sad story lost souls that I haven't seen before
Giving keys to everything but never open doors
And it's hard to find a purpose what she's living for
She don't wanna live no more baby

She moved to LA on her own with no family
She been tryna link and fuck but I know she's a fan of me
Rather be that nigga that you call when you lost sanity
Can barely get a one time link with me no second chance with me

Baby
Baby

Blood in my eyes and my gun too
No one on my side who I run to
Lost soul you mean a lot if I want you
Lost soul you mean a lot if I want you

No second chances
No second chances
No second chances

I've been up for days on days thinkin' bout you
I've been up for three whole days thinkin' bout you
Thinkin' bout the love you give oh you it's natural
Can I buy your soul before the devil snatch you
Tell me can I fuck your soul with no attachments
You love way too many of my bros but it was never lasting
Bragging bout the niggas that you know of what I was never asking

You know if I loved you girl I'll always love you
Always bout you
It's always bout you

Blood in my eyes and my gun too
No one on my side who I run to
Lost soul you mean a lot if I want you
Lost soul you mean a lot if I want you

No second chances
No second chances
No second chances
