Hate it when your friends gotta remind you I'm that nigga
You help me down more than most of my niggas
Pushin' my buttons, pullin' all of my triggers
You'll never know what you're meant to me (Meant to me)

Told you to give it time 'cause if it's us then it's meant to be Told you it's forever 'cause forever you'll be a part of me
Don't let the offset shit too quick, I feel like Cardi B
All the times I answer when you're lonely
Now I want my back against the wall, shit ain't never startled me [?]
You know I don't wanna be a dawg, it's just the dawg in me
Heartbroken and scarred from all them bitches who been doggin' me
I still need revenge from all them bitches, it's been hard to sleep
Oh baby, I'm just leanin'

Smoke even though you know you're wrong (Baby)
Why you bringin' smoke when you know it's ozone to a happy home?
Why you bringin' smoke when it ain't smoke? Baby, you should watch your tone
Why you pickin' fights when I'm out in Paris with Ye? Baby, watch the throne
