

ONCE AGAIN

Vory

Oh yeah, yeah
Ay

I always find myself in these dark clouds
Come to you Lord 'cause I don't know how
Come to you Lord 'cause I don't know why
The devil tryna get me, oh man
Oh yeah
Said the devil tryna get me once again
Said the devil tryna get me once again
Yeah

I'm struggling to find my brand own set of rules
They're perfectly fine but where I don't have a clue
Just need more time to gather my thoughts, I'ma bet on you
Wanna thank the Lord, this night we fight
Go swimming and I'm praying more time, I'm committing to the fight
If anyone dares to try it and near me
All for us are in [?] gonna win
It wasn't even close, not really
Gonna use my time, my time that I have left
When I phased out, just another silhouette
Thinking that you're right when you see it, we twist
Holding it tight like you think that you're the best
Will you look at me the same for sure?
I'll move my body out the door
That's what you're probably looking for
'Cause I'm nobody outside your door
Do you really ever think of what I came for?
Must be hard enough remembering, this painful
Even hardships and the suffering
And taking off these chains, now I'm free, I can start again

I always find myself in these dark clouds
Come to you Lord 'cause I don't know how
Come to you Lord 'cause I don't know why
The devil tryna get me, oh man
Oh yeah
Said the devil tryna get me once again
Said the devil tryna get me once again
Yeah

Now show me some more, receive my flowers in numbs (oh yeah)
I misunderstood but that mean that I'm wrong? (Oh no)
Not really appropriate (never wanna mean it in a bad way)
Just show me some love
How many more times do I say and endure
I'm out on a mission, no you can't ignore
Now let's play a game of spin the ball
And see what I'm gonna go south
Why can't you take me serious? I was very poor
I'm gonna get you waiting, what I'm aiming for
I shoulda learned a lesson when I change it for you
Change me for it too

I always find myself in these dark clouds
Come to you Lord 'cause I don't know how

Come to you Lord 'cause I don't know why
The devil tryna get me, oh man
Oh yeah
Said the devil tryna get me once again
Said the devil tryna get me once again
Yeah
