Ayo, CHRXS always drippin'
Hello?
[?] here
Ayy, you can send her up
Now, why is her name not on your guest list?
I'll add it, hehe
Hehe, alright, thank you, bye-bye

Some days, I wonder if Olivia still think about me, yeah, yeah
Some days, I wonder if Charlie, do you still think about me? Man
You had me all up in your dorm room
Five o'clock, I had to be home soon
I wasn't shy to show you off, I put the whole city onto you
I did
I couldn't even tell you how I'm thinkin' straight
My life's a video, I need to win a VMA
I got a little baddie workin' for me at the TSA
She let me bring whatever I wanna bring
I'm really not even paranoid, I'm just movin' cautious
You wanna know why I don't trust you? It's 'cause I took too many losses
And I know you checkin' my page every day on yo' finsta, ayy
Goin' out your way to tell me that you don't miss us
And I know you fuckin' him, you get defensive when I ask why you like his pictures
Huh, I know it

Find me, find me peace
Timeless, timeless peace
Honest, honestly
Tell me why my demons always on go?

They tell me maybe I need therapy
Or maybe it's just my own insecurities
Or maybe I'm the only one that's hearin' me
I still think I'm too young to settle for anything

It's bittersweet, but I still taste it, though
Should've listened to your friend when she said, "Take it slow"
Now I can't take no more
Seen you in the club, it's hard to act normal
Why they act like you ain't mine when all them niggas on you?
These streets just don't love you like I do, I warned you
She do live Sunday, Monday, she back sinnin' (Yeah)
Ayy, I blow her back on Thursday, Friday, I'm back winnin' (Yeah)
What's up with your friends? You fuck me good, she'll get a brand new pendant
Ayy, bougie bitch, she want a Patek Phillippe
Ayy, respectfully
Please don't check on me, you don't got no check for me
If these days I don't even know what's next for me

They tell me maybe I need therapy
Or maybe it's just my own insecurities
Or maybe I'm the only one that's hearin' me
I still think I'm too young to settle for anything
I still think I'm too young to settle for anything

Find me, find me peace
Timeless, timeless peace
Honest, honestly
Tell me why my demons always on go?
