

War 2.0

Vory

Are you searching for me?
Didn't know I was hard to find
Never give a warning
You do this every time
Blessings that are falling
Into these arms of mine
Angels that are calling
Telling me the world is yours
But it's not

'Cause it's all, it's all for you
My heart is broke in two
I need a prayer from you
To heal up my wounds
It's all, it's all for you
My heart is broke in two
I need a prayer from you
To heal up my wound-

I'm losing touch of who I am these days
Going through a lot, girl, I'm glad you stayed
I go out my way for you
Fake fall and here's the proof
You need to hear the truth
Girl, you told me to cut them hoes loose
And for you I did
I'd be down bad if I lost you
And I know I will

But are you searching for me?
Didn't know I was hard to find
You never give a warning
You do this every time
Blessings that are falling
Into these arms of mine
Angels that are calling
Telling me the world is yours
But it's not

'Cause it's all, it's all for you
My heart is broke in two
I need a prayer from you
To heal up my wounds
It's all, it's all for you
My heart is broke in two
I need a prayer from you
To heal up my wounds
