

Devil Inside Me

Votchi

Feel me, cool me
Cut a bit my rope
Give a little hope

Yearning, baby
Make a little less
Of my loneliness

In this cloudy place
don' do me wrong
the devil's faces
still turn me on

I'm still trying to find some happiness
in this bloody mess

Please, come closer let me feel your touch
and thank you very much

In this cloudy place
don' do me wrong
the devil's faces
still turn me on

I've got the reason
to feel the pain, pain
It's running through my vein
It's not that easy
to walk away
You're dirty and you're sweet,
you're everything to me.

What happened to the things we used to do?
You said it's all the same and that you needed a change. You left without saying goodbye and now I'm wondering why. But I don' think I wanna know all the stupid things that he really does better, and how the past just doesn' matter.
Don' hide your face, I always thought you are strong. You set up the game, but now you get it all wrong.

In this cloudy place
don' do me wrong
the devil's faces
still turn you on

seeing is believing what if I'm only dreaming You never betrayed me wake me up and then save me!

I've got the reason
to feel the pain, pain
It's running through my vein
It's not that easy

to walk away
You're dirty and you're sweet,
you're everything to me.
I've got the reason
to feel the pain, pain
It's running through my vein
It's not that easy
to walk away
You're dirty and you're sweet,
You're the devil inside me!
