

Dragon Babe

Votchi

Here's the secret tale, of someone never known
For all of those that think, they don't dream any more
Tonight some mighty force, invites you to change the faith
She can see a golden rain, dreaming awake.

She's quite rare
Dreams other worlds
She's a smile sprinkled by the dawn.

Under gloomy night, she went across the trees
The golden rain stopped, a cave was at her feet
Golden dragon wings, there she found the beast,

R:
(dragon)
'Now you know'
It told her: 'Don't be afraid'
'Dragon wings, dragon wings, I give you away, I give you away'
'Till the day'
'You can fly all night long'
'Paint the sky of golden dust, there's every place to go, there's every place to flow
'Now you know'.

(and) Every night when, the stars start to wink a golden rain, is seen near her bed.

She's quite rare
Dreams other worlds
She's a smile sprinkled by the dawn

Dragon babe
Dragon babe
Dragon babe, she's made a magic friend.

R:
Everywhere you look
Find this magic gold
Dragon wings, dragon wings, there's every place to go, there's every place to flow
There she goes...

You can fly all night along
Paint the sky of golden dust, paint the sky of golden dust

She's quite rare
Dreams other worlds
She's a smile sprinkled by the dawn

Dragon babe
Dragon babe
Dragon babe, she's made a magic friend.
