VOWWS

I sat beauty on my knee
She disappointed me
And so I told her how to be
That she'd insulted me

Magistrate
You're stained, you're stained
Emperor
You're stained, you're stained

Take your time
Make sure it's all that you can find
Carve a line
And get on the right side

Something got a hold of me
A greater force than me
I told her then and there we'll be
A pair indefinitely

Bend the line
Make sure it's harder to define
Compromise
Gets you on the right side

Magistrate
You're stained, you're stained
Councillor
You're stained, you're stained
Emperor
You're stained, you're stained
Councillor
You're stained, you're stained
