

Impulse Control

VOWWS

You are not alone anymore
You heard what I was running from
It's getting harder to ignore

If every vision is a shadow of what it was before
If you never get an answer
What are you still searching for?

Holding one hand in the fire
Forgot what I was running from
Now it's burning higher

A never-ending future
You will get your peace and reward
A mutilated creature that will reach its final form

I saw who you are
Rust on every part
Holding us together
Is tearing me apart
