

Symbol System

VOWWS

A heart beating in the morning sun
I throw myself from one chair to another
A symbol system for everyone
I lend myself to one and then another

Coming on with double talk
I stay neutral
Move over I'm the new kid
I move quickly

An eye dropper and a bleeding arm
I'll take you there 'cause I got no honour
So hold me up from one side
And we can make the feeling go on longer

Twelve hours gone and we're still waiting
Keep dreaming
I remember when days were so bright and full of questions
No longer
