

The Great Sun

VOWWS

I've a way to go
But I don't mind

He said he's gonna be waiting
Counting time

I swear I'm starting over
You could be anyone
I'm sure I made you up
'Cause I'm just so overdone

I'm headed for the Great Sun

I haven't found a place I won't go
To fight the feeling that I am on my own

So when it's almost over
Act like it's just begun
We're gonna get back to ourselves
We'll head for the Great Sun

I'm headed for the Great Sun
