

Colours

Voyager

Leave
Leave all
Leave now
Leave I

Leave
Leave it alone
Leave on the run
We are the colours in the sun

Land waves run on borrowed time and the kaleidoscope runs far behind. It's the colour white in his pale blue eyes. Ten feet under the dead might die and the suspense is killing us inside on the other side and your pale blue eyes are watered down and so we leave...

Leave all
Leave now
Leave I

Leave
Leave it alone
Leave on the run
We are the colours in the sun

... and now the colours run to the tune of one
As they say their last goodbye and hold onto what's done
... and the hollow prayers for the life that's theirs
Leave it all and let the colours sink into your soul
Into your soul

And so we leave
Leave all
Leave now
Leave I

Leave
Leave it alone
Leave on the run
We are the colours in the sun
