Ultraviolet

Voyager

Ultraviolet
Ultraviolet
Ultraviolet
Ultraviolet

I have tried I have tried I have tried in the modern world
Near the lights, near the lights, near the lights here with everythin g I've heard
Bring me up bring me up bring me up so I travel light
Bring me down bring me down bring me down so I'm outta sight

Doesn't matter anymore
Doesn't matter anymore

I don't wanna be silenced by my dreams
This is the gaze, the stare that settles on the prize
I don't wanna be bathed in disbelief
This is the gaze, the stare that locks in my eyes

I don't wanna be silenced silenced
I don't wanna be the solitary thief
Take a breath of this violence violence
I don't wanna be bathed in disbelief

I don't wanna be ultraviolet, violet
I am porcelain
Ultraviolet, violet
Ah! The modern world
I don't wanna be ultraviolet, violet
I am porcelain
Ultraviolet, violet
Ah! The modern world

Doesn't matter anymore
(I have tried I have tried I have tried in the modern world)
Let us be shaken to the core (Near the lights in the lights in lights here with everything I've he ard)

I don't wanna be silenced silenced
By all the menacing eyes of the few
I don't wanna be silenced silenced
This is the time to surrender the essence the Breath of this violence violence
I strive for perfect perception right down to the Colour of ultraviolet, violet
Turn on the lights and forget that the pressure is real
