

Hello Darkness

Vreid

Hello darkness
We meet again
Hello darkness
Until the end

Face to the ground
Dirt dries the mouth
Eyes glued by blood
Aching in all bones
The crow screech singing
As I rise from the dust
The days are numbered
So let them come

Back on the saddle
I ride again
One step at a time
A lawless man
One step from death
I knock on the door
I might be burned
But still want more

Hello darkness
We meet again
Hello darkness
Until the end

Hero or villain
Depends on the tale
The deck of cards
Paved my trail
These are days to be won
In the end we loose
As the sun settles
I see the silhouette of the hangman's noose
Hello darkness, we met again
Hello darkness, this is the end
