

FALLEN BEYOND

VUKOVI

Out of my mind with a cold blooded appetite
Keeping me warm but I can't seem to feel the light
I'm not living for a lie, I don't wanna be polite
But I get a sinking feeling when you push me higher
Start a flood, an eye for a eye
Eye for an eye
Sit back, hold tight

Oh, keep holding on
'Cause I need you here
Wanna run but your arms are heavy I'm a ghost unborn
I've fallen beyond, can you catch my breath?
I don't know where you're heading but keep holding on

I'm out of my mind, can't sleep without a lullaby
Keeping me warm but I can't seem to see the light
I'm not living for a lie, I don't wanna be polite
But I get a sinking feeling when you push me higher
Start a flood, an eye for an eye
Eye for an eye
Sit back, hold tight

Oh, keep holding on
'Cause I need you here
Wanna run but your arms are heavy, I'm ghost unborn
I'm fallen beyond, can you catch my breath?
I don't know where you're heading but keep holding on

Give me a second 'cause I feeling fucking numb
I'm not ready but I'll sure make it fun
Give me a minute and we'll take it slow
Take my hand and turn off the light
Give me a second 'cause I feeling fucking numb
I'm not ready but I'll sure make you come
Give me a minute and we'll take it slow
Take my hand and turn off the light
Tell me how to stop the rain
I don't ever wanna feel it again
Twisted

Sit back, hold tight
A cold blooded appetite
Sit back, hold tight
A cold blooded appetite
Sit back, hold tight
A cold blooded appetite
Sit back, hold tight
A cold blooded appetite

Oh, keep holding on
'Cause I need you here
Wanna run but your arms are heavy, I'm a ghost unborn
I've fallen beyond, can you catch my breath?
I don't know where you're heading but keep holding on
