

My mortal garden has a phantom
It likes to piss on my blood red bed of roses
Drink and spoil me until I can't breathe
Wish I could blow your soul like smoke right out my body

And I try
You massacre my time and I know you should be better

What are you waiting for?
Let's ignite 'cause my heart is all for you
Feel like it's in my blood
And I'm scared 'cause tonight I've been falling just a little bit more
I'm wasting away, in your bed
I'll pray for this 'cause you're the only thing I need more of
I know it's impossible but I'm tied to your thread
Do you feel it too?

Flat lined courage, I'm broken hearted
I'm no Delilah, I swear I'm something purer
You're so guarded, your own captive
Give me the keys and I vow to make it sweeter

And I try
You massacre my time and I know you should be better

What are you waiting for?
Let's ignite 'cause my heart is all for you
Feel like it's in my blood
And I'm scared 'cause tonight I've been falling just a little bit more
I'm wasting away, in your bed
I'll pray for this 'cause you're the only thing I need more of
I know it's impossible but I'm tied to your thread
Do you feel it too?

Sick of wasting all of my time but I'm right back calling for you
Tired of aching every night but the truth is I think that I love you
I do

Wash your sins
Hang your shame
Set you free
Rid your pain

I'm wasting away, in your bed
I'll pray for this 'cause you're the only thing I need more of
So what are you waiting for?
Let's ignite 'cause my heart is all for you
