

Schwagger

VUKOVI

Breaking down wearing frowns sitting in the dark
Lost her soul in doesn't care what she's looking like
She lost her glint shining in her eye
Hides her pain underneath her famous smile

Then one day she woke up had a change of heart
Screw the mail and the rest she's making a new start
She's bringing her own swagger back
He's crawling, never get his puppet back

Walking in the shadow of his heart
Daylight breaks, her swagger's back to stay
Walking in the shadow of his heart
Daylight breaks, her swagger's back to stay (oh!)

Looking up, upside frowns running to the light
Found a soul looking sexy and her jeans are tight
He's gone she's back wave bye bye bye bye bye
To that bellend

Then one day she woke up had a change of heart
Screw the mail and the rest she's making a new start
She's bringing her own swagger back
He's crawling, never get his puppet back

Walking in the shadow of his heart
Daylight breaks, her swagger's back to stay
Walking in the shadow of his heart
Daylight breaks, her swagger's back to stay (oh!)

Her swagger's coming back
Back to stay
Back stay- yeah yeah yeah
