

Thick Skinned

VUKOVI

Piece my heart together
Breathe me, I'm yours forever
Wear my thick skin
No one gets to come in

I see us together
Come undone together
Piece my heart together
Breathe me, I'm yours forever

I'm not one for second chances
Is this what a true romance is?
I'm not one to let my heart go
I give it to you
Holding back, withdraw my spirit
Does he think my heart's not in it?
I'm not one to voice my findings
But I need you

Piece my heart together
Breathe me, I'm yours forever
Wear my thick skin
No one gets to come in

I see us together
Come undone together
Piece my heart together
Breathe me, I'm yours forever

I'm not one for second chances
Is this what a true romance is?
I'm not one to let my heart go
I give it to you
Holding back, withdraw my spirit
Does he think my heart's not in it?
I'm not one to voice my findings
But I need you
I need you
Want me too

I need you
I need you
I see us together
Come undone together
I see us together
Come undone together
I see us together
Come undone together
Piece my heart together
Breathe me, I'm yours forever
