

Devil Tree

Vulvodynia

Twisted roots, writhe and coil
Branches laden with unholy soil
A monstrous sight, they bow the knee
Chanting incantations, the devil tree

Vampiric vine like tendrils
Innocent life's are given
The gluttonous tree well fed
The bark turned red from bloodshed
By countless sacrifice
As it devours souls it snuffs out all the light

Suffocating, fighting
You are now caught in its grip
Pure despair
Masochist, offer
Filled with glee as she's tortured
Ripped apart

Carnivorous arboreal fiend
An entity of absolute power
Blood flow in a sinister stream
With every generations daughter devouring

Passed down from the ancestors
Tales from the macabre
Forsake the ancient scriptures
Tales from microbe

Bloodborne fruit, demonic seed
In the darkness where nightmares breed
Gnarled and twisted in agony, you'll plea
Feeding on your flesh, the devil tree

Feeding on their first born seeds
I am the devil tree
Creeping roots rip from the seems
I am the devil tree

Drinking from the aboral malignant devil tree

Hunters bathed in blood of daughters
Bloodthirst grip a tribal write
Surreal rituals, drums and thunder
Chalice filled with the throes of ritual sacrament

Sated gullets filled with red
Drink my children for the land
My ancestors

Carnivorous arboreal fiend
An entity of absolute power
Blood flow in a sinister stream
With every generations daughter devouring

Carnivorous arboreal fiend
