

Pathogen X

Vulvodynia

Wake up! The end of humanity lies in a test tube
There is a cure for every pathogen known to man
All have been engineered for depopulation purposes
There is a cure for every pathogen known to man
All have been engineered for depopulation purposes

A rise in population
Threatens the oppressor unseen
Therefore he must annihilate
We are an intimidation
To his rule
In secret he's designed a pathogen that could kill us all

It is currently contained by the CDC
1600 Clifton Road, Atlanta, Georgia

The CDC was not created too halt the spread of disease
It was created too harvest the ultimate virus
The CDC was not created too halt the spread of disease
It was created to manifest the ultimate virus
The ultimate virus

If the need ever arises this pathogen will act as the killswitch to all human existence
They deemed it Pathogen X
The harbinger of death
Uncontrollable, unstable, ready for genocide

If infected your entrails quickly turn sludge
A gruesome death lies in wait for humanity
If infected your entrails quickly turn sludge
A gruesome death lies in wait for humanity
If infected your entrails quickly turn sludge
A gruesome death lies in wait for humanity

There are many things you've yet too learn
