

Hurricane

Vundabar

It doesn't have to be devotion
Fly to the sun
And on the wings of our emotion
Fingerless gloves

What did I just say so? (Yeah, yeah)
See a sea through you (Yeah, yeah)
And if you want cold water (Yeah, yeah)
I'll still fall with you (Yeah, yeah)

Now I've been hanging like a
Hurricane, hurricane, hurricane, hurricane
Hurricane on your love
I've been hanging like a
Hurricane, hurricane, hurricane, hurricane
Hurricane on your soul
I've been hanging like a hurricane

Ever since you come and lift me up
I've spent years in days
I wouldn't trade a day back, but
Now I feel a pinch misplaced

We watched the sudden sunset (Yeah, yeah)
As the wind picked up (Yeah, yeah)
And I stepped into your stone (Yeah, yeah)
With the sky red-blood (Yeah, yeah)

Now I've been hanging like a
Hurricane, hurricane, hurricane, hurricane
Hurricane on your love
I've been hanging like a
Hurricane, hurricane, hurricane, hurricane
Hurricane on your soul
I've been hanging like a hurricane

Found the calm in the middle of the warmest of storms
I found the calm in the middle of the warmest of storms
I found the calm in the middle of the warmest of storms
Found the calm in the middle of the warmest of storms
I found the calm in the middle of the warmest of storms
I found the calm in the middle of the warmest of storms
I found the calm in the middle of the warmest of storms
I found the calm in the middle of the warmest of storms
