

Listless Blue

Vundabar

Funny how can I say I never missed you
Funny how can you say it's not an issue
Plaintive poker face, some smoke to see though
Scenery fade away to a listless blue

Now you've got my back up against the wall
And I don't wanna fall
Now I don't know what else I can do
I fade away to listless blue

I can't deny in that time it glimmered something
Inside an empty chest there is a soft din
Grows into a chorus, almost screamin
In the heat the chorus boils and I decide I'm leaving

Now you've got my back up against the wall
But then the bricks all fall
Now I don't know what else I can do
I'm moving through this listless blue
