Vundabar

I kept 'em out of the daylight, oh whoa
The sun would do no favors to their [?] skin
I sat 'em down around lunchtime, oh whoa
We devised that you [?]

And he weighed, and he weighed
And he weighed me down

Don't get me wrong it was alright, oh whoa
Let's take a [?]
But he ain't gotten on a long time, oh whoa
There would be nothing, it's rising from that [?]

And he weighed, and he weighed
And he weighed me down

Like construction three doors down
It brought me hell
Don't know what it was they were building
It broke me down

Down, down, down, down
Down, down, down, down
Down, down, down, down
Down

And he weighed, and he weighed
And he weighed, and he weighed
And he weighed, and he weighed
And he weighed, and he weighed

And he weighed, and he weighed
And he weighed, and he weighed
And he weighed, and he weighed
And he weighed, and he weighed

And he weighed, and he weighed
And he weighed, and he weighed
And he weighed, and he weighed
And he weighed, and he weighed

And he weighed, and he weighed
And he weighed me down
