

Voodoo

Vundabar

Dead, on the railroad tracks
Boy don't step on cracks or you
Will break your mothers back
Boy don't step on cracks

Girl, I wanna be your boy
Your black magic toy
Boy, I wanna be your girl
Yours in a midnight world

Papa broke another mirror
And though the glass is broke
It's never seemed clearer
So you better watch your back
Don't you cross no black cats

Girl, I wanna be your boy
Your black magic toy
Boy, I wanna be your girl
Yours in a midnight world

Well they called it
The Graveyard Shuffle
The Devil's Dance
And the Angel's Strut
And you found yourself between the two
Can't ask no bag of bones what to do

Girl, I wanna be your boy
Your black magic toy
Boy, I wanna be your girl
Yours in a black magic world

Girl, I wanna be your boy
Your black magic toy
Boy, I wanna be your boy
Yours in a midnight world
