

Be Yours

VV Brown

Lying in my bed
Thoughts in my head
Wondering if I'll ever feel this way again
I'll be on the moon
Floating 'round with you
Tryin' to work out whether love is my friend
'cause I have fallen deep tonight

Just look at your face
What a special space
You are like a painting from another race
I have never seen something so serene
It is so amazing
What you do to me
'cause I have fallen deep tonight
The world is beautiful tonight because

I'll be yours
You will be mine
We will be this 'til the end of time
It will be great
It will be right
And we align like the stars in the night
Because I'll be yours
Be yours
Be yours
I will be yours

What a pretty sight
Floating like a kite
I'll be up in heaven shining up like lights
It will be a dream
Riding round with me
Bicycles are rolling, speedling like the breeze
'cause I have fallen deep tonight
The world is beautiful tonight because

I'll be yours
You will be mine
We will be this 'til the end of time
It will be great
It will be right
And we align like the stars in the night
Because I'll be yours
Be yours
Be yours
I will be yours

Won't be giving up
Love you til it hurts, I know
When you're old and grey
Here I am to stay, I know, I know

I'll be yours
You will be mine
We will be this 'til the end of time
It will be great

It will be right
And we align like the stars in the night
Because I'll be yours
Be yours
Be yours
I will be yours
