

Go Back

VV Brown

Go back to where you came from
Go back to where you came from
When you came to the true motherland
And sold my ancestors into slavery
Transporting them like cattle in chains in the bowels of ships
Did you believe the noble descendants of African kings and queens
Would go defeated and docile into a lifetime of captivity?
Did you believe that?
Go back to where you came from
